Remember the primary Saturday. The new constitution is gaining strength.

President Harrison's electioneering tour has thus far been a pleasant affair.

The money spent by the less Congress amounts to $15.87 for every man, woman and child in the country.

The Courier Journal is fighting the new constitution with as much fervor as Bob Ingersoll traduces Moses.

All Kentuckians are watching Louisville this week. That which politics fails to catch, the horse races gather in.

Reliable reports say that Kansas and Nebraska will have the largest yield of wheat this year ever known in those States.

Reports from the Northwest say that the frost last week did irreparable damage to the growing wheat crop.

The recent census located the center of population of the U. S. States at Columbus, Indiana, and a monument to designate the spot was dedicated Saturday.

The two former candidates are not making a lot of canvass for the Legislature, but while the two are sedate now, the lucky one will win this summer.

President Harrison has about finished his swing around the circle. Everywhere he was treated as the President of this great country should be, with the highest consideration.

Christian county Republicans instructed their delegates to vote for Mr. Monahan, the big distiller of Owensboro, for Governor. A man with a barrel goes a long way in politics.

Last week the boats, a privateer of the Christian insurance, steamed out of the harbor of San Diego, Calif. after having loaded with contraband goods, and while a United States cutter was in charge. The act of the boat in carrying supplies to the insurgents of Cuba is a violation of the laws of nations, and the United States cruiser Charleston has been ordered to capture the vessel and bring her to port.

The Democratic forces are gathered in Louisville. Nothing can be told of the result until the war of the ballots begins to day. There are 145 contested seats and there will be a lively fight over these.

The people of the new third party of the country are to no alarming extent recruits from the old parties; especially in this true of the more prominent ones who are trying to organize a "new party." They come from the old third parties, and their heads are more or less sore from striking brick walls while madly carrying on political leaders.

Detective O'Malley, notoriously connected with the New Orleans affair, has published a long card, declaring his innocence. He says that he has a theory about the death of Hennessy, and that the Mafia had nothing to do with it. O'Malley's infamous record adds nothing to his standing, and the people who believe his statement are few, far between, and very small.

Crop statistics for the past year returned to the State Auditor by County Assessors, show a total of 166,811,966 pounds of tobacco produced in Kentucky last season, Christian county leading with 9,850,500 pounds. This total was an increase of 2,040,835 pounds over the preceding year, and the largest single crop since 1884, when the total was 226,147,027 pounds. The hemp crop of 1890 aggregated 12,445,358 lbs.; hay 243,470 tons; corn 42,116,937 bushels; wheat 8,504,790 bushels; and oats 3,692,629 bushels.

In another column is the call for a primary election to nominate a candidate for the Legislature. Livingston county selected the time, and the Democracy of Crittenden cheerfully acquiesce, even on short notice. Democrats, turn out. We have two good farmer candidates to select from, take your choice, close up the lines and support the nominee. All the opposing forces appear to be concentrating their strength and preparing to beat the nominee; not because he will be incapable or unworthy, or does not represent the political sentiments of the voters of the district, but because he is the nominee.

The amount of money in the banks and in actual circulation on May 1, is stated by the Secretary of the Treasury at fifteen hundred millions ($1,500,000,000). Gold, $61,692,815; silver dollars, $57,368,507; minor silver coin, so that, in taking the round numbers, one third of the money supposed to be in circulation is in coin and two thirds in paper. Of the paper $346,000,000 is in greenbacks; $195,000,000 national bank notes; $812,000,000 silver certificates and $57,000,000 bullion notes for the purchase of silver, payable in either gold or silver under the Bullion Purchase act of last year.

A movement is on foot in Washington to pension the old worn out clerks in the government service; the pension to come out of the salaries of the young and active clerks, and the salaries of the young and active clerks to come out of the United States Treasury, and the money in the United States Treasury to come from the rich, prosperous and gamblers on our hillsides and in our valleys. No doubt these poor, decrepit, ill used, abused clerks in various departments need careful attention. Uncle Sam ought to be ashamed of himself for forcing people to accept clerkships and wear their poor lives away working eight hours a day.

The situation of the railroad and mining enterprises of this country is not exactly pleasant to those who expected good things. The Press feels a little shaky about the future of the Marion, Princeton and Ohio River railroad, but still the devil has no tip on it yet, and as long as there is life there is hope. Some enterprises are not moving as rapidly as they might, but stringency of money matters, and mismanagement, largely chargeable with this. The gentlemen who have been devoting their time and some of their money to developing the minerals of the country, were novices in that line of business, and while their most sanguine hopes have not been realized, and tardiness of affairs brings some discouragement, they are still in the ring, and if not as full of fight they have more mature ideas, gathered from experience, and will not give up the ship. Crittenden is rich in minerals, and in due season they will be developed. In the meantime let us let no opportunity to move forward be lost.

A CALL

DEMOCRATS, ATTENTION!

All persons who will agree to support the nominee at the August election are entitled to vote in said primary election.

The Sunday School went on a fishing expedition to Livingston creek last Saturday and had a jolly good time, but very few fish were caught. They had a fine dinner on the ground; in fact a first class picnic in every respect.

Go to Jacobs & Debee with your bacon, lard, young chickens, eggs, feathers, rags, live young squirrels and money, and they will pay you the best market price and sell you goods too cheap to talk about, and tell your neighbors to go to Jacobs & Debee for low prices and good bargains.

Freedom Church.

When Freedom from her mountain height unfurled her banner to the air, She tore the azure robe of night, And placed its stars of glory there!

And I am proud to state that the banner of Old Freedom again waves, though for several months she has hung the flagstaff "without a flutter."

My old friend J. C. B. McEwan has been changed into another school district. Jim is a good fellow and we are sorry to lose him.

I learn another effort is to be made to grade the Bob Fritts hill. If this improvement can be made it will be a good thing for our people.

I also made the acquaintance of Mr. Spone's family, who occupy another ranch of mine, known as the McGregor farm. The Spone's are strangers in this section, but they seem to be nice people, and their neighbors all speak well of them.

Uncle Jimmy Brown looks as young and frisky as a yearling colt, but I am sorry to learn that his wife is in poor health. I have a nice present for little Miss Mary Russell Brown, Uncle Jimmy, and I want you to send to the Press office and get it.

On the Saturday after my return home I visited my enterprising young friend Sam Conger, who now occupies one of my ranches in the country. Sam has a good deal of get up about him, and he is the proud possessor of one of the handsomest pairs of twins in the county.

Since my return from Arizona, I have been hearing of Marion Clement, Jr., out of my board, and was pleased to meet among the board Mr. G. Washington Price, of Nelson county, a number of whose relatives I knew forty years ago, when I had charge of the telegraph office at Bardonia. Last Saturday Mr. Price went on a fishing frolic to the old Crow farm, now owned by Mr. Morrell. The party caught 15 pounds of nice fish and a big turtle, and enjoyed a fine fish dinner Sunday. George says Mr. Morrell has 50 acres in corn, fine pastures well stocked, and he enjoyed his trip hugely. George is a good fellow and Marion Clement says he can distill more and better whisky out of three grains of corn than any man in Kentucky. Neither George or Marion ever drink, however.

Miss Ann Robinson, an old and respected lady living with Dr. Par's, happened to quite a serious accident Monday, while walking out the yard her foot slipped and she fell heavily, dislocating and fracturing the hip joint. Drs. Hayden and Paris are in attendance.

We feel it our duty, in justice to the church and community here, to say that the church and people on masses do not approve of the action of the church at its last session in refusing Rev. Best the privilege of taking up a collection to aid the American Bible Society in its most excellent and laudable work in our country. We know not the grounds for this extraordinary proceeding, but we feel perfectly safe in saying that if the idea and purpose of this society had been presented, the congregation at Union would have welcomed the opportunity and cheerfully given its mite to this work. Suffice it to say, the pastor was not present at the time of that action of the church.

SHOT AT SALEM.

John McIntire Shot by John Watson.

SALEM, Ky., May 11.—About 3 o'clock this afternoon two pistol shots rang out upon the ears of the people of this place and it was soon learned that John McIntire, a citizen well known in Livingston county, had been shot by John Watson, a citizen and farmer of this section. Two shots were fired; one missed its mark but the other entered McIntire's body at the top of the left hip, ranging downward and a little to the front of the lower intestine. The ball has not yet been located, and the character of the wound is not fully determined, though the doctor thinks it is not necessarily a fatal one. The trouble it seems grew out of a matter of long standing. Some 20 years ago Watson's father had a personal encounter with parties in Salem. John and McIntire were talking of the matter today, when a dispute arose, and in less than the time it takes to write it, the affair was over. It is stated that Watson called McIntire a liar, and the latter raised his arm to strike, and the shots were fired.

The will of R. L. Moore deceased was probated Monday. The will divides the estate among the children of the deceased, making ample provision for all. The children of the deceased daughter was also remembered; after providing for a burial and monument the wife is given $5000, and the son, a son-in-law, etc., as she desires and homestead right in a farm. Each of the three daughters are given $6,000; each of the sons of Mary Watson are given $1,000 and certain lands. The two sons L. B. and R. L. Moore are each given $7,000. Ewel C. Moore is willed two farms and $3,000, and is to provide and care for his mother during her life.

Master George Smith, the Child Violinist of Louisville, Ky., will give a Violin Recital in this city at the court house, Saturday, May 23, '91. At Louisville there were over two thousand persons at Liederkrantz Hall to hear him. Cemo and bring your children. A small admission fee will be charged. Admission 15 cents; Children 10 cents. Performance at usual hour.

Building and Loan Associations are growing in popularity in Marion. A year ago the first local branch was organized; two months ago the second; and last week Mr. M. G. Miller organized a branch of the Louisville Savings, Loan and Building Co. with the following directors: J. P. Pierce, Pres.; R. C. Walker, Vice Pres.; H. H. Loving, Secretary and Treasurer; W. L. Crue, Attorney; J. H. Morse, Local Agent; J. A. Hurley, W. T. McConnell, L. S. Leffel. Marion has 418 shares of stock in the three companies.

Tuesday the following invitation was delivered to the Marion boys: "There will be a party in town tonight; guess where, and come." At the proper time the search was begun for the party. First it was located at Judge Pierce's, but when they got there it was gone; the boys being aware that a crowd of girls could not exist without talking, delegated the search to the ears and had no trouble in finding the party at Mr. Hillyard's.

Mr. R. W. Wilson has purchased the Crittenden Springs and will put them under good management this season. Those who anticipate visiting this popular summer resort this year will find its affairs all in good shape. Heretofore the proprietors and managers have been different persons, and there has always been more or less loggishness, but now one man is the proprietor and there will be less friction.

Eli Adams was arrested last week for forging a $9.00 order to Clement & Croft at Tolu. He signed George Jacobs' name to the order and got a suit of clothes. After the arrest the goods were returned. There is also a warrant for his arrest, charging him with stealing $10 from Wm. Padon. On the first charge he waived an examining trial and was held over until circuit court under a $300 bond.

The following gentlemen left for Louisville Tuesday evening to represent Crittenden in the Democratic State Convention: T. J. Nunn, L. H. James, Jesse Olive, A. M. Hearin, H. K. Woods, Clem Nunn, O. M. James, M. G. Gilbert, E. C. Flannery, J. W. Blue, W. D. Crowell, Foster Threlkold, P. B. Crow, J. P. Pierce, E. M. Clement, J. Clark, L. W. Crue, C. R. Doss, Ned Towery, J. W. Skelton.

A crowd of young folks of this place paid the branch penitentiary at Eddyville a visit last Sunday. They speak in very high terms of the accommodation and kindness of the officers in charge of the penitentiary.

J. L. Moore, jr., has been elected a director of the bank to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father. Mr. J. C. Elder, jr. has been made assistant cashier.

Eld. J. S. Henry returned from Birmingham, Ala., Tuesday, where he spent five days in the Southern Baptist Convention.

He spoke an hour and stood like a stone wall against the repeated efforts of the leaders to shut him off. He said, addressing the chair. You call this non-political, but you always go to a certain political party to get your nominees. If its an independent movement, why in every race for the Legislature do you go to the opponents of the Democratic party for your men? Why in the race for the constitutional convention did you go to the Republican party? There is system in this; it's no accident that you do this. If it is the people's movement why did you drop Jack Fleming so quick; he is as much one of the people as any man you ever run. Why would you not even consider his name? Gentlemen, you can't use me as a tool to help defeat my own party. If this were the people's party, as you claim, the people would not studiously select a man from one particular party all the time. You may cajole others into following you off in a studied scheme of this kind but I have enough of it. A handful of you gentlemen, who are as deeply dyed in your old party feeling as ever, can't dictate to me how I shall vote; nor to the Siloam Lodge. You may talk about burying your old party feeling, but it's all talk and no bury. When the test comes the cat always has, and always will jump one way. By leading some of us off you hope to elect your man, and your man is always an opponent of the Democratic party. The Democrats largely predominate in this district. Tell me why it is then, that out of this majority you never, no never select a candidate? He is always chosen from the opponents. If this is not a prearranged plan to disrupt the Democratic party to the advantage of its opponents, in the name of heaven tell me what it is? Your correspondent gave a spontaneous "hurrah" for Alex, when he heard these words of truth, and I am proud that old Siloam Democrats will not submit to the dictation and leadership of those whose prime object and great glory is to beat a Democrat, no matter whether that Democrat is a farmer, carpenter, or anything else. They want to defeat him and the trick now in hand is the same old job that has been on hands for three or four years. They nominate a Republican because they say he is a people's man, (hoping by this dodge to catch Democrats), and the Republicans vote for him because he is a Republican. This is a great scheme, but it is time that men who believe in Jefferson, Jackson and the doctrines of the party from the beginning to the present day to "catch on to the racket."

Yours,
J.

"A Sweet Life; or the Life of Willie Price," is the title of a little book just published by Rev. James F. Price, of this place. It is a short biography of his little boy; the story of the little life, which went out so early, is simply, modestly told, and is fragrant with the Christian's faith which permeated every thought and guided every act of the little boy. His short life was a great sermon; the story as told in the little book is like a little crystal stream, the low, gentle murmurings of which lead the heart and mind to thoughts of home and heaven.

Price 10 cents. For sale at R. C. Walker's bookstore. The proceeds from the sale of the book will be devoted to some religious cause.

Important to Teachers.

The following section of instructions of the Superintendent of Public Instruction to County Superintendents is of special importance to teachers:

"Examination of applicants for teachers certificates.—These examinations of applicants for certificates of course be formally held by the county boards of examiners, as provided by law, on the subject prescribed by law.

The scale of graduation is 100. A general average of 85 per cent., but on no subject less than 60 per cent., will entitle an applicant to a first class certificate; a per centage of 75 but on no subject less than 55 per cent. to a second class certificate; a percentage of 65, but on no subject less than 50 per cent. to a third class certificate."

During an epidemic of whooping cough at De Witt, Iowa, a prominent family there, bought a fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for their children. It proved so satisfactory that they recommended it to their neighbors; and they in turn to others. In less than a week time, the cough, Mr. C. V. Baxter, was having an immense run on it. The remedy is still the main reliance in that vicinity for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Mr. Baxter says, "It sells on its merit."

eight of the region is the reason the operators are not attempting to fire any new plants, desiring first apparently to have those now in operation fully manned before lighting fires in others. By well informed people it is said the operators were not at all averse to entering the strike, though they are certainly making strenuous efforts to extricate themselves now. Anticipating a strike of but a few weeks' duration,
all the mills in this vicinity loaded
up with coke, but are now sadly harassed; even the great Edgar Thompson, which Carnegie had piled to the sties with coke, being obliged to lay off 1,000 men on account of the scarcity of the article.

Operators themselves say they were unwilling to use the last, and as it now seems the most deadly of weapons against the strikers, labor importation; but that once begun, they will carry it through, and unless they return to work it looks very much as though the fourteen thousand men still idle in the region will be forced from their work, homes,
and even the region. The men, however, are fighting gamely and say they will yet win. That the operators have not everything their own way is shown by the daily new strikes, when labor leaders have succeeded in inducing the men to quit, in every case either taking care of them out of the relief funds or prying their fare to other coal and coke districts.

The aggregate loss of the strike
has been estimated between $2,500, 000 and $3,000,000 and may be much higher. Whichever side wins—and that even can not now be long delayed—this strike will go down in history as one of the most stubbornly contested and disastrous known in this section, in addition to loss of property and life, and scenes of riot and bloodshed, that may be repeated any day before the ugly chapter closes.

Tribute of Respect.

ZION HILL LODGE F. & A. M.,
Weston, Ky. April 30, '91.

Bro. R. L. Moore, Sr., was born March 24, 1820, and departed this life April 28, 1891. He was made a Mason July 28, 1864, in Zion Hill
Lodge No. 371, which he remained a faithful member of until his death.

Whereas, Death has again invaded our circle and one of our beloved brothers has been removed from us by the mysterious providence of an all wise God, and we are called on to mourn his death,

Resolved, That in the death of our Brother and friend, R. L. Moore Sr., our Lodge has lost a useful and the Masonic fraternity a faithful adherent to its order.

Resolved, That in our intercourse with our departed Brother we found him to possess all the traits of character to endear him to us as a Mason and his kindness and generosity will long endear his memory to us.

Resolved, That in his death his family has sustained an irreparable loss and we hereby tender them and his many friends our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their great bereavement.

That this Lodge in token of their esteem will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and cause
the hall to be draped in mourning
for the same period.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our deceased Brother, R. L. Moore, Sr., and that they be placed upon the records of this Lodge and a copy
be sent to the county papers for publication.
